Workshops

Welcome to the 2008 series of Fall Counselor Workshops! These free sessions are designed to help school counselors with important program developments for the new school year. They are also an opportunity to hear from our most important advisers: school counselor professionals.

We hope you will attend a workshop so you can:

- Discuss best practices with school counselor colleagues
- Provide advice on how we can help you help your students and their parents
- Get updates on programs intended to help prepare students for college success

Counselor Workshop Schedule:

8:30–9 a.m.                      Registration and refreshments

9 a.m.–Noon                      Discussion and updates will include:

- Counselor Advocacy initiatives and activities
- Enhancements to My College QuickStart™ to help students understand and use their PSAT/NMSQT® results
- How to use the new SAT®-ACT Concordance Table
- collegeboard.com developments to better serve students, parents, and education professionals

Information will be provided on College Board programs including the Advanced Placement Program® (AP®), the SAT Program, the PSAT/NMSQT, and the latest developments in federal financial aid, and the CSS/Financial Aid PROFILE® process.
