Section I: Multiple Choice Booklet Instructions

Section I of this exam contains 70 multiple-choice questions. Fill in only the circles for numbers 1 through 70 on your answer sheet. Because this section offers only four answer options for each question, do not mark the (E) answer circle for any question.

Indicate all of your answers to the multiple-choice questions on the answer sheet. No credit will be given for anything written in this exam booklet, but you may use the booklet for notes or scratch work. After you have decided which of the suggested answers is best, completely fill in the corresponding circle on the answer sheet. Give only one answer to each question. If you change an answer, be sure that the previous mark is erased completely.

Use your time effectively, working as quickly as you can without losing accuracy. Do not spend too much time on any one question. Go on to other questions and come back to the ones you have not answered if you have time. It is not expected that everyone will know the answers to all of the multiple-choice questions.

Your total score on the multiple-choice section is based only on the number of questions answered correctly. Points are not deducted for incorrect answers or unanswered questions.

Section II: Free Response Booklet Instructions

The questions for Section II are printed in the orange Questions and Documents booklet. You may use that booklet to organize your answers and for scratch work, but you must write your answers in this Section II: Free Response booklet. No credit will be given for any work written in the Questions and Documents booklet.

The proctor will announce the beginning and end of the reading period. You are advised to spend the 10-minute period reading the question and planning your answer to Part A, Question 1, the document-based question. If you have time, you may also read the questions in Parts B and C. Do not begin writing in this booklet until the proctor tells you to do so.

Section II of this exam requires answers in essay form. Write clearly and legibly. In the box at the top of each page, write the number of the question you are answering as it is numbered in the Questions and Documents booklet. Begin each answer on a new page. Do not skip lines. Cross out any errors you make; crossed-out work will not be scored.

Manage your time carefully. The proctor will announce the suggested time for each part, but you may proceed freely from one part to the next. Go on to Parts B and C if you finish Part A early. You may review your responses if you finish before the end of the exam is announced.

Section II: Questions and Documents Booklet Instructions

This Questions and Documents booklet may be used for reference and/or scratch work as you answer the free-response questions, but no credit will be given for the work shown in this booklet. Write your answers in the Section II: Free Response booklet.

If you are giving the regularly scheduled exam, say:

It is Thursday morning, May 16, and you will be taking the AP World History Exam.

If you are giving the alternate exam for late testing, say:

It is Wednesday afternoon, May 22, and you will be taking the AP World History Exam.

In a moment, you will open the packet that contains your exam materials. By opening this packet, you agree to all of the AP Program’s policies and procedures outlined in the 2012-13 Bulletin for AP Students and Parents. You may now remove the shrinkwrap from your exam packet and take out the Section I booklet, but do not open the booklet or the shrinkwrapped Section II materials. Put the white seals aside. . .

If students accidentally place the exam label in the space for the number label or vice versa, advise them to leave the labels in place. They should not try to remove the label; their exam will be processed correctly.

Read the statements on the front cover of Section I and look up when you have finished. . .

Sign your name and write today’s date. Look up when you have finished. . .
Now print your full legal name where indicated. Are there any questions? . . .

Are there any questions? . . .

Section I is the multiple-choice portion of the exam. You may never discuss these specific multiple-choice questions at any time in any form with anyone, including your teacher and other students. If you disclose these questions through any means, your AP Exam score will be canceled. Are there any questions? . . .

The answer sheet has circles marked A–E for each question. For World History, you will use only the circles marked A–D. You must complete the answer sheet using a No. 2 pencil only. Mark all of your responses beginning on page 2 of your answer sheet, one response per question. Completely fill in the circles. If you need to erase, do so carefully and completely. No credit will be given for anything written in the exam booklet. Scratch paper is not allowed, but you may use the margins or any blank space in the exam booklet for scratch work. Are there any questions? . . .

You have 55 minutes for this section. Open your Section I booklet and begin.

Note Start Time here ________. Note Stop Time here ________. Check that students are marking their answers in pencil on their answer sheets, and that they are not looking at their shrinkwrapped Section II materials. After 55 minutes, say:

Stop working. Close your booklet and put your answer sheet on your desk, face up. Make sure you have your AP number label and an AP Exam label on page 1 of your answer sheet. I will now collect your answer sheet.

Collect an answer sheet from each student. Check that each answer sheet has an AP number label and an AP Exam label. Then say:

Now you must seal your exam booklet. Remove the white seals from the backing and press one on each area of your exam booklet cover marked “PLACE SEAL HERE.” Fold each seal over the back cover. When you have finished, place the booklet on your desk, face up. I will now collect your Section I booklet. . . .

There is a 10-minute break between Sections I and II. When all Section I materials have been collected and accounted for and you are ready for the break, say:

Please listen carefully to these instructions before we take a 10-minute break. Everything you placed under your chair at the beginning of the exam must stay there. Leave your shrinkwrapped Section II packet on your desk during the break. You are not allowed to consult teachers, other students, or textbooks about the exam during the break. You may not make phone calls, send text messages, check email, use a social networking site, or access any electronic or communication device. Remember, you are not allowed

You may begin your break. Testing will resume at ________.

SECTION II: Free Response

Section II has three parts and begins with a 10-minute reading period. During the reading period, you will read and plan what you will write for Part A, Question 1, which is the document-based question. If you have time, you may also read the essay questions in Parts B and C. You can make notes in the orange booklet. Are there any questions? . . .

You may now open the orange booklet and begin the 10-minute reading period. Do not open the exam booklet yet.

Note Start Time here __________. Note Stop Time here __________. Check that students are writing any notes in the orange booklet. If any students begin writing their responses during this time, remind them that the reading period is not yet over, and that the reading period is designed to provide students with time to develop better organized, higher scoring responses. If the students choose to continue writing responses, take no further action. After 10 minutes, say:

Stop. The reading period is over. You have 2 hours to complete Section II. The suggested writing time for Question 1 is 40 minutes. After 40 minutes, you will be advised to go on to Part B and then 40 minutes later to move on to Part C.
You are responsible for pacing yourself, and may proceed freely from one part to the next. You may use the orange booklet for scratch work, but you must write your answers in the exam booklet using a pen. Write the number of the question you are working on in the box at the top of each page in the exam booklet. If you need more paper during the exam, raise your hand. At the top each extra piece of paper you use, be sure to write only your AP number and the number of the question you are working on. Do not write your name. Are there any questions? . . .

You may begin.

Note Start Time here __________. Note Stop Time here __________. Check that students are using pens and that they are writing their answers in their exam booklets and not in their orange booklets. After 40 minutes, say:

You should now move on to Part B.

After 40 minutes, say:

You should begin working on Part C. You will need the remaining 40 minutes to complete your last essay.

After 30 minutes, say:

There are 10 minutes remaining.

After 10 minutes, say:

Stop working and close your exam booklet and orange booklet. Put your exam booklet on your desk, face up. Put your orange booklet next to it.
Do not place your Section II exam booklet inside your orange booklet or vice versa. . . .

If any students used extra paper for the free-response section, have those students staple the extra sheet/s to the first page corresponding to that question in their exam booklets. Then say:

Remain in your seat, without talking, while the exam materials are collected. . . .
Collect a Section II booklet and an orange booklet from each student. Check for the following:

- Exam booklet front cover: The student placed an AP number label on the shaded box, and printed his or her initials and today’s date.
- Exam booklet back cover: The student completed the “Important Identification Information” area.
- The student wrote answers in the correct areas of the Section II exam booklet and not in the orange booklet.

When all exam materials have been collected and accounted for, return to students any electronic devices you may have collected before the start of the exam.

If you are giving the regularly scheduled exam, say:

You may not discuss these specific free-response questions with anyone unless they are released on the College Board website in about two days. Your AP score results will be delivered online in July.

If you are giving the alternate exam for late testing, say:

None of the questions in this exam may ever be discussed or shared in any way at any time. Your AP score results will be delivered online in July.

If any students completed the AP number card at the beginning of this exam, say:

Please remember to take your AP number card with you. You will need the information on this card to view your scores and order AP score reporting services online.

Then say:

You are now dismissed.

All exam materials should be put in secure storage until they are returned to the AP Program after your school’s last administration. Before storing materials, check the “School Use Only” section on page 1 of the answer sheet and:

- Fill in the appropriate section number circle in order to access a separate AP Instructional Planning Report (for regularly scheduled exams only) or subject score roster at the class section or teacher level. See “Post-Exam Activities” in the 2012-13 AP Coordinator’s Manual.
- Check your list of students who are eligible for fee reductions and fill in the appropriate circle on their registration answer sheets.

IMPORTANT: The orange booklets must be returned with the rest of your exam materials. This applies to all exam administrations, including late testing. These booklets are not to be kept at the school, or returned to students or teachers. When sorting exam materials for return, keep the orange booklets separate from the Section II exam booklets. Do not place Section II exam booklets inside the orange booklets or vice versa. The free-response questions for the regularly scheduled exam may not be discussed unless the questions are released on the College Board website two days after the exam.
